

September 9, 2006

Three Omega Seamaster watches for the best women players

Belgrade (pps) Italy's star attacker Tania di Mario was elected best women player of the 27th European Water Polo Championships by the coaches of the participating eight teams. Her team-mate Elena Gigli won the award for best goalkeeper, while Russia's Ekaterina Pantolina was best goalscorer with 18 goals. All three players were awarded Omega Seamaster watches by LEN Secretary Sven-Egil Folvik (Norway) and Edgar Wyss, the Marketing and Sales Manager of Swiss Timing, at the conclusion of the women's event on Saturday night.